[NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

RE: Petition for Revival of Application No. 09/432,820, abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(b).

Dear Ms. Brantley,

This is in continuation to our discussion this morning regarding the above application, and our previous petition for revival under 137(a). As advised by you, we are now submitting herewith a petition for revival under 137 (b), along with a credit card payment of the required fee.

We request that our petition be kindly approved, to allow revival and continued examination of the instant application.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Archana Kapoor-Munshi, Ph.D.
